Stunning property with beautiful sea views

Perched above the glittering western coastline, Can Chloe sits within easy reach of two of Ibizas most quietly coveted coves, the sheltered bay of Cala Vadella and the pebbled shore of Cala Moli. Inside, white walls and natural wood set a calm, unhurried tone, while colourful furnishings add warmth and character to the generous living spaces. The kitchen is well equipped and anchored by a breakfast bar, opens onto a sunwashed terrace where a table for eight catches the morning light. As the day turns, the villas elevated position earns its reputation: the western horizon ignites at sunset, painting the sea amber and gold. With five bedrooms and an atmosphere that sits somewhere between refined and relaxed, this is a villa for those who want Ibizas wild beauty on their own terms unhurried, uninterrupted and entirely their own.
