Charming and stylish Villa near San Lorenzo and Santa Gertrudis

Can Mira is a five bedroom villa, newly built stone by stone within the magical embrace of ancient pine trees and a forest that holds secrets only those with an open-heart and unfettered imagination can uncover. Perfectly hidden deep in the campo, its proximity to restaurants, beaches, shops and Ibiza town are to be rejoiced in; nothing is far from your Island hideaway. Follow the twisting country roads and within minutes you find yourself in the village of Santa Gertrudis, a cool cute social hub, where stocking up on organic essentials, popping in to browse artisan home wares in Es Cucones or an indulgent no shame people watching, café con leche in hand from the village square are all easy peasey.

A love project from beginning to end, the villa is everything you would want from a family villa. Soft muted natural stone interiors provide the backdrop for mystical artifacts and artwork from far flung destinations all personally curated by the owners. High spec throughout, Can Mira makes the living easy and frankly effortless when you have a multi generational group that lovingly demand different things. Yet it is more than just the city standard flick of a button technology here that eases your time on the island. Sun shiny days that make way to hazy nights, giggles and stolen glances between your tribe, knowing that all is right, all is good. Dancing like a loon just to see your children laugh uncontrollably, their beautiful faces etched into your mind's memory bank forever. With a myriad of outside al fresco spaces and a huge garden perfect for tearing around in, Can Mirna will return you and your loved ones to the connection that is sometimes lost in our busy lives. Restoring fun, frivolity and freedom, all by just holding the most precious of spaces for you all to simply be.

Open plan living creates space and intimacy all in one and Can Miras' large living, dining and kitchen area provide this new slow rhythm for you to languidly dance to. Carefully considered cupboards and generous amounts of work surfaces including a central food island implore you to prepare nutritious and fun family feasts. Large windows look out onto the wisteria-framed porch, and beyond the forest unfurls its majesty. Keep a watchful eye on your little ones as they begin adventures in the forest, returning at lunchtime a little more feral than they started. The look of exploration ablaze in their shiny, excited eyes.

A large L-shaped sofa with super snugly seats invites you and your lot to cuddle on or stretch out. Planning the day's island adventures or perhaps radically not planning at all, delighting in the newly found sense of no schedule.

Can Mirna offers a myriad of activities for your young ones to engage in, from skateboarding, football or badminton whilst you lounge in any of the chill out or al fresco dining spaces. Cocooned by nature, Can Mirna offers freedom and space to roam wildly. Proud Pines leave traces of a resinous woody smell in the air and Palms of all sizes from stocky to slender cast a tropical spell that weaves around you. Breaking the fifty shades of verdant green are neon burst of saturated fuchsia bougainvillea. Precisely cut green coiffured lawns offer their soft-carpeted grass for bare foot walks or take off like an explored and follow the windy paths deep into the grounds.

For cozy fireside chats, curl around the open plan fire when the nip is in the air or simply luxuriate alone in the space with a book or guilty pleasure magazine.
