A Countryside Finca Where Orchard Air Meets Barefoot Sophistication

Santa Eulalia's rolling interior unfolds quietly around this centuries-old finca — terraced orchards, warm stone walls, and the kind of deep countryside silence that Ibiza's coastline rarely offers.

Cana Celeste earns its name in the quality of its light: golden through the day, celestial by evening. The ground floor moves easily between cool, whitewashed living spaces and the sun-warmed terrace, where a private pool mirrors the hills beyond. Three bedrooms on this level are serene and considered — linen textures, private bathrooms, natural tones that ask nothing of you. Climb to the master suite and the landscape opens fully: a king bed framed by terrace doors, orchard views stretching to the horizon, and a bathroom where a deep soaking tub and Balinese shower make the ritual of evening genuinely unhurried.

Close your eyes and you can already hear the cicadas settling in.
