An iconic villa with views of Ibiza Town and the Mediterranean

Villa Abigail is a majestic 4-bedroom, hillside contemporary villa with panoramic views looking onto Ibiza Town and across the Mediterranean sea, sweeping across as far as Formentera. The property is perfectly situated close to Talamanca beach where you can enjoy the vibrant cafe culture.

This modern, contemporary villa is polished with cool grey-white interiors and marble floors with an expansive natural flood of sunlight entering through the floor to ceiling windows. As you enter this prestigious property, a unique feature stone wall captivates your attention stretching from the stairway on each level. The first floor is open plan with a casual seated lounge, a second mezzanine lounge, and a formal and second, more relaxed dining area all serviced by the sleek contemporary kitchen.

The modern and stylish theme continues throughout the master suite and subsequent bedrooms. The master suite is resplendent with a king size bed, en-suite bathroom with shower and jetted tub, and access to a private terrace with unrivalled sea views. The further bedrooms are equally stylish and well appointed, in a contemporary style. Bedroom 2 is a double bedroom and has an en-suite bathroom with shower. Bedroom 3 is a double bedroom, this room has a bathroom room with shower just over the hallway. Bedrooms 2 and 3 also have sea views across Ibiza to the city, sea and Formentera. Bedroom 4 is a double bedroom with shower. This bedroom can also be set a twin upon request,.

Once outside, the wide sweeping terrace and fabulous infinity pool is lined with contemporary loungers and features a large dining table, creating a wonderful al-fresco entertaining space. The spectacular sunrise can be enjoyed from the comfort of the terrace areas, and they offer the perfect space to truly immerse yourself in the relaxed yet stylish surroundings and soak up the never ending sea views.
