Property with stunning sea views close to beaches

Villa Katherine is a sophisticated and stylish 6-bedroom property offering breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea and the picturesque hillside of San José, nestled in a private and secluded location. This modern villa, located on the west side of the island, is spread across three individual buildings, making it the perfect retreat for families or groups of friends. The superb location provides easy access to some of Ibiza's most stunning beaches, including Cala Vadella, Cala Bassa, Cala Comte, and Cala Tarida.

The main house is spread over two floors and is designed with sleek, contemporary décor and natural wooden finishes. On the ground floor, you'll find a spacious open-plan living and dining area flooded with natural light, offering panoramic sea and coastline views. The modern, fully equipped kitchen includes all the essential appliances for your convenience. This area flows out to a large, sun-drenched terrace with a sublime outdoor dining space, perfect for enjoying meals while taking in the surrounding beauty.

The ground floor also features the master bedroom, a double room with an en-suite bathroom, which opens onto a private terrace with stunning sea views. Upstairs, there are two additional bedrooms—a twin and a double—both with sea views and sharing a bathroom.

Adjacent to the main house, the poolside casita offers two bedrooms, one twin and one double, each with its own en-suite bathroom. A lower casita provides a double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom. Both casitas feature separate living spaces and private outdoor terraces equipped with beautiful Balinese day beds, providing an extra level of privacy for those seeking a tranquil retreat.

The lush, well-maintained grounds of Villa Katherine are a true highlight. The magnificent swimming pool is surrounded by luxurious sun loungers, offering an ideal spot to relax while enjoying Ibiza's famous sunsets. The spacious terrace is complete with a stylish chill-out area and shaded dining space, providing the perfect setting for outdoor entertaining or simply unwinding with family and friends.
